New for 2016!	The big news from Air Canada this year is their launch of a number of new direct routes to Europe with Air Canada rouge. These include Prague in the Czech Republic, Warsaw in Poland and Budapest in Hungary . All three offer a quick and easy way to explore the heart of Europe direct from Toronto with easy connections from the rest of Canada.
Dreamliner B787	The Dreamliner B787 aircraft represent the latest generation of aircraft and provide an unparalleled onboard experience - everyone on board benefits from a quieter and smoother flight with these ultra-modern planes. Plus technological advances mean less travel fatigue. Ambient mood lighting eases the time zone changes, lower cabin pressure means better oxygen absorption and increased humidity reduces dehydration. The air you breathe is cleaner thanks to continuous circulation through an advanced filtration system and the water is pure thanks to ultra-violet light water treatment. These aircraft offer the largest windows of any aircraft flying today – and forget about blinds as these windows have an electronic dimming system!
Cabin Classes	Air Canada rouge offers you a choice of three cabin classes to Europe: Premium rouge Rouge Plus rouge Best of all, Air Canada passengers earn Aeroplan miles on every flight - which they can then use towards future travel. Maybe you even have enough Aeroplan miles to fly to Edinburgh.
Joint Venture Partners	Air Canada offers services to many destinations with their Atlantic Joint Venture partners Lufthansa and United Airlines - Air Canada's nonstop service complements the service offered by these partners offering Air Canada customers even more choice.
Toronto to Europe	Air Canada rouge offers the following non-stop routes from Toronto:  Glasgow (new seasonal service) London Gatwick (new seasonal service) Warsaw (new seasonal service) Prague (new seasonal service) Budapest (new seasonal service) Athens (seasonal service) Barcelona (seasonal service) Dublin (year round daily flights) Edinburgh (seasonal service) Lisbon (seasonal service) Manchester (seasonal service) Venice (seasonal service)

Excursions - Warsaw

Air Canada Vacations offers a multitude of excursions in all their European destinations. Here are some examples from their new destinations to Europe this summer:

Discover Warsaw with a City Sightseeing tour:

Warsaw, the capital of Poland, is a unique city located in the centre of Europe. You will be truly fascinated by the history and atmosphere of this magnificent city, which combines the influences of Western and Eastern Europe, where tradition meets modernity. Discover the city of contrasts, where historical monuments and modern architecture coexist in every street. The Old City has been meticulously restored and centres on a medieval market square with open-air cafes, surrounded by Renaissance and Baroque style houses. The Barbican, a relic of the medieval ramparts, is to the south of the square, and further south is Lazienki Park.

Warsaw's Jewish Heritage by Retro Fiat:

Trace the story of Warsaw's Jewish community on this 4-hour private tour, by chauffeured vintage Fiat 125p. With insightful running commentary from your driver-guide, board your car and explore the World War II Jewish Ghetto district to visit the Ghetto Wall, Nożyk Synagogue, Jewish Cemetery and, if you wish, the Museum of the History of Polish Jews. Ask to see any places of particular interest, savor onboard snacks, and stop on route to enjoy an optional Jewish meal at a traditional restaurant. This private tour ensures the full attention of your guide.

Frederic Chopin and Masovian Country Tour from Warsaw:

Search for the roots of Chopin's creativity in the place of his birth and see the fortress-like church in Brochów where Chopin was baptised. In Maurzyce ethnographic park you get to know how people lived in the past. Lowicz's proud is triangle-shaped market square and colourful handicraft.

This tour starts in Warsaw. During the tour you will see:

Zelazowa Wola – place of birth of Frederic Chopin. Put yourself in the little Frederic's shoes while strolling down the hallways of his old home. Exhibition includes many valuable memorabilia from the Chopin family, including original piano Playel. If you are lucky, hear the live piano concert on Sunday's afternoon (from May to September). Mansion is situated on the river Utrata and surrounded by a picturesque park. Brochów – fortified church. The current outlook church gained after the reconstruction in 1665. Church was built of red brick and is one of the most valuable example of 'defensive' architecture in Poland. Here Frederic's parents – Nicholas Chopin and Tekla Justyna Krzyżanowska

	were married while Frederick was baptised. Lowicz -This small town is known from triangular market square- only one in Poland and one of three in Europe. Just next to the market square lies cathedral from 17th century and Lowicz Museum presenting a rich collection of wooden sculptures, colourful costumes and paper cuts. In Lowicz traditions are still alive – with a little luck, you can even meet women dressed in traditional folk costumes! Maurzyce – Ethnographic park. Discover Polish folklore just outside Lowicz. Maurzyce Ethnographic Park gives you opportunity to see characteristic construction of villages from 19th century. Admire genuine buildings with stunning furnished interiors and interesting buildings: school, stable and huts. Instead of eg. Maurzyce you can visit Nieborow and Arkadia: Nieborów. See the aristocratic residence of Radziwills family. The beautiful palace was built for Primate Michal Radziejowski. The complex consist of: the palace, orangery, coach house and manufactory. The residence is surrounded by charming French formal park. Arkadia. Founded in 1778 for Helena Radziwillowna park is one of the most splendid park in Poland. Walking down lovely alleyways do not miss artificial ruins: Temple of the Archpriest, Roman Aqueduct, Grotto of Sybil and Gothic house. Park is open for public from May till September.
Excursions - Prague	City Sightseeing Prague - Hop-On-Hop-Off Tour:          Discover Prague on an open top bus tour of this beautiful city Explore Old town, the heart of Prague, with its well preserved 13th century houses and churches. Here, you'll find the Old Town Hall, the Municipal House and the Estates Theatre. The Old Town Square is home to the famous Astronomical Clock which draws onlookers who gather to observe the skeleton ringing the bell and the other figurines which appear. When the bell chimes the hour, a trumpeter sounds a fanfare from the top of the tower. Hop off and see The Metronome monument, which is situated where the Stalin memorial statue once stood, and enjoy stunning views of the city. Prague Ghosts and Legends of Old Town Walking Tour:          Join this 70-minute ghost and legends tour in Old Town and take a walk through Prague's dark past. Your guide will take you through narrow, cobbled streets and winding lanes where once murderers, alchemists, monsters and other spirits walked.          This walking tour about Old Town's ghosts and legends will take you away from the hustle and bustle of Prague's Old Town Square and into one of the oldest parts of the city.

	Step back in time to an era of poverty, plague, intrigue and magic and filled with history. Experience this atmosphere in a den while listening to stories of death and betrayal, dark arts and demonic visions. Learn about the restless spirits that are said to roam amongst the beautiful architecture of Old Town - you may even meet one face to face! Your storytelling guide will take you through the mysteries, legends and tales from darker ages and sides of Prague's history. This Ghost and Legends of Old Town Walking Tour is a great experience for believers as well as skeptics, or those who want to explore a different side of Prague on a historical tour. Prague Castle Walking Tour Including Admission Tickets:      Tour Prague Castle on a 2.5-hour walking tour and learn about more than ten centuries of the city's history while exploring the biggest castle complex in the world! Discover St. Vitus Cathedral, Old Royal Palace, St. George's Basilica and Golden Lane.      Meet your guide at Prague's famous Charles Bridge 2.5-hour, from where your guided tour begins. Cross Charles Bridge and make your way to Lesser Town Square, while learning about the history of Prague Castle.      Take the tram from Lesser Town up to the spectacular castle and explore St. Vitus Cathedral, Old Royal Palace, St. George's Basilica and Golden Lane (entrance included in ticket).      Listen to stories about kings, princes and emperors as well as the ceremonial history at St. Vitus Cathedral and discover the old castle, Vladislav Hall and St. George's Basilica, where you will learn all about Czech saints from your guide.      Last but not least, visit Golden Lane and hear about the lives of the local residents before your Prague Castle tour ends.
Excursions - Budapest	3-Day Budapest Weekend Adventure:      Join this guided weekend adventure exploring Budapest. A local, professional guide is guaranteed to provide the best the city has to offer. Stop by iconic sites such as Heroes' Square, St. Stephen's Basilica &amp; the Holy Hand, Grand Market, and the Jewish Quarter. Kick back in the world-famous Szechenyi thermal baths and go caving deep inside the hills of Buda! By nightfall, experience the city's incredible "ruin bars" on the popular local pub crawl. Small group sizes and centrally located accommodation ensures a personalized experience. Sziasztok!      Kick off your unforgettable weekend by opting into an early Thursday arrival (Tour Option: 'Budapest 4 Days, 3 Nights') Those arriving Thursday can join the notorious boat party that cruises the Danube beneath the sparkling lights of the bridges, the Parliament and

Budapest's Castle District all while partying it up.

Friday, Day One: Meet Pest & Buda

A local Budapest guide will meet up with you at 9:45am at the hostel for a quick orientation meeting (Tour Option: Budapest 3 days, 2 nights). From there, we'll wander down Andrassy Avenue, Budapest's Champs Elysees, to see all the iconic sights: Hungarian Parliament building, a statue of Ronald Reagan, the American Embassy, and a memorial to the victims of the Nazis called Shoes on the Danube. (2.5 hrs)
After crossing the Danube on the Chain Bridge, and climbing up to the Castle, we'll wrap up the walking tour at the famous Fisherman's Bastion overlooking the entire city (1 hr). With a short lunch break, you'll hop back across town via bus to the City Park to soak it up at Budapest's best natural thermal spa: Szechenyi Baths (2.5hrs).
The amazing local guide will take you to her favourite deli where you get to pick exactly what you want before it's flash-grilled in front of you. Dress to stay out as you'll be pub crawling through District 7 and tossing back drinks in this neighborhood's most distinctive venues: Ruin Bars. Left in shambles after WWII, this area is only recently gentrifying with a fun and young energy, drawing all the coolest kids in town.

Saturday, Day Two: The Heart of Pest

Meet up with your group and guide at 11:00am after breakfast and coffee and wear comfy shoes and clothes for the upcoming adventure. Begin by walking down Budapest's oldest Medieval street, Vaci Utca, to the colourful Grand Market - the largest and oldest indoor market in the city (30 minutes). (1.5 hrs)
Now that you're well-fed, it's time to strap on jump-suits and headlamps, because it's on for an afternoon of caving deep inside the hills of Buda! These massive underground caverns are filled with awe-inspiring stalagmite and stalactite mineral formations! Alternative activities will be arranged by your guide for those who are claustrophobic (3hrs).
Dinner is included tonight, so be sure to come out for another round of typical Hungarian cuisine. Continue your escapades and dive into more ruin pubs, or opt into the ridiculous Bath Parties, where DJs spin the night away while you enjoy the pool party!

Sunday, Day Three: Tearful Goodbyes

Tour members are free to depart to catch their transportation arrangements. But if you're sticking around, your guide will take you to breakfast at the Szimpla farmers' market, followed by a visit to the

	Synagogue, the biggest in Europe. Buda Castle Explorer with an Entrance Ticket to Matthias Church from Budapest:          Hit the historical side of Budapest during this walking tour on the Castle Hill. Peek into the city's oldest confectionery shop, hear stories and tales of the area's past, and enjoy a few surprises along the way... Get to know the real Hungary with this historical Budapest tour. You will begin with a short minibus ride to reach the entrance gate of the Castle District, where you'll set off on your Budapest adventure. Pass by historical buildings that seem to be silent and sleepy, but just wait until your guide tells you stories from behind the walls. Enjoy the small architectural details prevalent in the Castle District and hear tales of former inhabitants and owners of the houses. Next up on your Budapest tour, you'll pass by the oldest confectionery shop of the city and visit the first private art gallery of Hungary. After taking a walk around the Royal Palace and admiring the breath-taking view from the hilltop, we'll walk back to the residential part of the Castle District. Here, you have time for a surprising discovery in the Hotel Hilton before your Budapest tour comes to an end at Matthias Church, one of the most beautiful buildings in the city. Budapest City Walking Tour:          Get your bearings and see the sights on a 3-hour small-group walking tour of Budapest. Escorted by an expert English-speaking guide, you'll see all the highlights including numerous UNESCO World heritage sites such as Heroes' Square and The Buda Castle, plus unexpected gems on this fascinating walking tour of magical Budapest. You'll also enjoy a break with two traditional Hungarian pastries and a hot drink. Numbers are limited to 15 people on this small-group walking tour of Budapest, ensuring you'll receive personalized attention from your guide.
